Identify How You Spend Your Time

1. Down the left-hand-side of this page, make 2 lists of all the common activities you do: 1) in a WORK DAY, 2) on a WEEKEND DAY.
2. Below, draw TWO large circles and create pie charts with 12 equally-spaced intersecting lines.
3. Each space between the lines represents 2 hours of time.
4. Next fill in the spaces in the circles to represent how much time you spend in each activity.
 - For instance, if you sleep for 8 hours, you would use one color to fill in four spaces and label that area "sleep."
 - If you watch a couple of hours of TV at night, you would use a different color to fill in 1 space and label it "TV."
5. After you completely fill in the circles, notice how you spend your time.
 - Which activities add value? Bring joy?
 - Which activities are draining? Depleting?
6. Then, keep track of how you use your time over the next 1-2 weeks. As you review your notes, identify 2-3 changes that will help you find more time for self-care.

My Declarations: Self-Care

Directions: Below, write some declarative statements about your beliefs and intentions as you choose to center self-care in your life:

1. I deserve to take care of myself, and I will.
2. I can only serve others if I continue to replenish my energy reserves.
3. I will put myself on top of my to-do list so I can be helpful to others.
4. There is always enough time to take care of me.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.

My Plan for Better Self-Care

- a. How I will take better care of my health? (sleep, exercise, stress management, doctor appointments, religious/spiritual practice, etc.)

- b. How I will eat (and drink) in ways that are better for me.

- c. How I will create a better work/life balance?
